" I wish to inform the House that I have extended the time-limit for giving notice of amendments to the Malabar Tenancy Amendment Bill till 5 o'clock to-day. All amendments received till 5 o'clock to-day will be included in the Agenda."

SRI K. P. GOPALAN :—" Sir, most of the Members, as far as I understand, have received notice only to-day."

MR. SPEAKER :—" Some hon. Members have complained to me that they received notice only to-day. That is why I have extended the time-limit till 5 o'clock."

SRI K. P. GOPALAN :—" Sir, we are supplied with the Select Committee report only to-day. We have to go through it. We have to study it thoroughly. Moreover the Assembly is in session to-day and as such, we may not have enough time at our disposal to go through the reports of the Select Committee. As such, I think it will not be possible for us to give all the amendments we want to give notice of before 5 o'clock to-day. I, therefore, want that the time-limit should be extended to to-morrow."
